Town Relief Committee Meet Lay Plans For the Collecting and Shipping of Vegetables

The heart of the great Grande Prairie district goes out to the people of the drought-stricken areas and a movement is on foot at all points along the railway and stretching out into the country to send garden and field products, of which there is such an abundance here, to those sorely in need of them.

On Thursday afternoon a meeting of the Grande Prairie Central Relief Committee was called to devise ways and means of collecting and forwarding the products.

The following were present: D. W. Patterson, president of the Board of Trade; Mayor P. J. Tooley; W. J. Thomson, District Agricultural Officer; McQuarrie, who represented the McQuarrie on behalf of the Women's Institute; Dr. J. W. Akin, representing the Grande Prairie Elks; Rev. Nelson Chappel, representing the United Church; Ministerial Association, and J. B. Tule, representing The Northern Tribune.

Death Claims Pioneer Woman of Buffalo Lakes

Mrs. Annie Odden of Buffalo Lakes, age 72, passed away at the home of her son, Anton Odden, on Monday morning, August 27.

Mrs. Odden was born in Norway and went to Minnesota, forty-one years ago, where the Oddens carried on farming until 1917, when they moved to the Peace River, settling in the Buffalo Lake district. Mr. Odden died in 1928.

Two daughters and four sons are left to mourn the loss of a wonderful mother: Mrs. Anderson, living at North Beach; Mrs. Walter Barber of Grifton, North Dakota; and three living in Minnesota: David, in Prescott, Arizona; Pete and Edna, in Utah.

A brother in Norway and a sister at International Park, Minnesota, also survive.

The funeral will be held from the home of Anton Odden at 2 p.m. Saturday, September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. David Odden were told by wire of Mrs. Odden's illness and started immediately by train, but arrived too late to be present before Mrs. Odden passed away.

New Wing of St. Joseph's School Nearly Finished

It is expected that the new wing of St. Joseph's school will be finished and ready for opening on Tuesday, September 4.

The building, commenced about a month ago, is being constructed and fitted to room.

Carpeting work is under supervision of Jim Macdonald, which was done by Bert Powell, plastering by Tom Masse, and the masonry by Ray Sticks.

A building moved from another part of town has been placed on the lot on a lot in the block south of the school and when altered will be used for an academy.

Manager Union Oil Visits G. P. And District

J. Venus of Calgary, manager of the Union Oil for Alberta and central British Columbia, is a visitor to Grande Prairie. He is making a business survey of the territory and recently visited all points south of Peace River, including the Block.

Seen by The Tribune reporter, Mr. Venus said that the company was planning to introduce in the very near future a new method of dealing with which were lacking at the moment. He had been advised that the company was spending close to $300,000 perfecting the new product, which would soon be made available to the public.

Mr. Venus was well satisfied with business in the Peace River, which, he said, was steadily increasing.

Mr. Venus was accompanied through the territory by Harold Oates, the local manager.

Bacon Hogs Sold For $6.50 Grande Prairie Market

Macon hogs brought $6.50 on the Grande Prairie market on Saturday last.

According to W. E. Hathwell, stock buyer, who shipped three cars of hogs from Grande Prairie to Regina, from now on stock will be shipped every two weeks instead of three.

Asked by The Tribune reporter with regard to the cattle market, Mr. Hathwell said that cattle were low in price for the present but he was not bounding them, for the reason that the price would hardly pay the freight. However, he said, were still in strong demand.

REV. J. L. McGUIRE SUGGESTS SHARING OVER-ABUNDANCE

Interviewed by a local journalist, Rev. J. L. McGuire of Moose Jaw, who is visiting Grande Prairie, drew a striking contrast picture between the Peace River country's grand crop of grain and garden products with the destitution of southern Saskatchewan.

He made the obvious suggestion of Peace River country sharing its over-abundance of vegetables with the people down there.

Several local clergymen have advocated the same idea.

Firemen's Picnic Goes Over Big At Bear Lake

Last Sunday was Red Letter Day on Grande Prairie firemen's calendars. They, together with other organizations, held this year at a beautiful spot on Howard Jurek's farm on the shore of Bear Lake.

The weather was ideal, location of the picnic site was most perfect, the firemen, their wives, children and friends were out for a good time and had one.

For the children there was plenty of food, for the grown-ups a plentiful supply of food and congenial company, and the day passed as pleasantly as any day of a wedding.

Following is an account of several of the outstanding events of the many day's program.

The first event was a contest in which there were games for children and softball was also included. Target shooting was an outstanding feature and was enjoyed by young and old.

Several hundred rounds of ammunition were fired off during the day and the target scores were rung up.

The two best scores for the ladies were made by Mrs. John Conley and Mrs. Hedley Jones, 41 and 34, respectively.

High marks in the juvenile section were made by Art Johnson, 37, Lloyd Miller, second with 34, Bert Ford with 33, and in the senior part of the day Lloyd Miller made 41.

Mr. Hoadley Sounds Clarion Call To Alta. Farmers To Put Up Every Bit of Feed Possible

EDMONTON, Aug. 30.—Northern Alberta has tremendous quantities of feed for sale, according to Hon. George Hoadley, acting premier, who revealed today that he was endeavoring to get the farmers to put up every bit of feed possible.

Hoadley, who has been appointed by the North Dakota government to purchase feed for the province of drought-stricken farmers in that state.

Mr. Hoadley sounded a clarion call to Alberta farmers to put up every bit of feed they could, as it appears certain that all feed available will be shipped to Canada and the U.S.

Mr. Hoadley said he had been advised Washington had been in touch with Ottawa with a view to ascertaining how much feed Canada would be able to sell to the United States.

Britain Wants Fifty-Fifty Break With Canada Says Maj. P.B.H. Ramsay Who Visits Old Land

"Due to the restrictions put on British commodities by the Canadian tariff, Canada is not in very good favor in Britain."

The above statement was made by The Tribune reporter by Major P. B. H. Ramsay of the East End, who returned from a trip to Britain on Tuesday last.

Major Ramsay, who was looking very much improved in health, went by way of the Panama Canal and arrived in London.

Discussing trade with Britain further, Major Ramsay said that all the British manufacturers want a fifty-fifty break, which is claimed, from that getting. Argentina, he said, is giving the British manufacturer that break and hence the immense trade being done with that country.

British manufacturers are often criticized for not making the things they need.

There seemed to be plenty of money coming in from the old country, looking for investment in the old country. Major Ramsay, however, told the Tribune reporter that there was such a shortage of money in the old country that it was not possible to get it.

Major Ramsay said that the British government was not getting the things it needed from the old country, and that the British government was not getting the things it needed from the old country.

Here are photos of the two discoveries, made by the Persian expedition of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago.
